

SCATHFUL

Meaning: Scathful: marked by harsh criticism or scornful remarks.

1. Her scathful remarks during the meeting made it clear she was unhappy with the team's performance.
2. The critic's scathful review left the author feeling disheartened and questioning her talent.
3. Even in a lighthearted conversation, his scathful humor often crossed the line into hurtfulness.
4. The scathful tone of the letter suggested that the recipient had deeply offended the writer.
5. Despite his scathful comments, she remained composed and didn't let his words affect her confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scathful>