

SCENT

Meaning: Scent: a distinctive smell, often pleasant, that is perceived by the sense of smell.

1. The scent of freshly baked bread filled the air, inviting everyone into the kitchen.
2. As she walked through the garden, the sweet scent of blooming roses surrounded her.
3. He could identify the scent of rain on the pavement long before the first drops fell.
4. The perfume shop was filled with an array of scents, each one more enticing than the last.
5. A faint scent of smoke lingered in the room, hinting at the recently extinguished fire.
6. The scent of freshly baked bread filled the air, drawing everyone to the kitchen.
7. She could detect the faint scent of jasmine lingering in the evening breeze.
8. His cologne had a rich, musky scent that was both alluring and comforting.
9. The forest was alive with the earthy scent of pine and damp moss after the rain.
10. As the flowers bloomed, their sweet scent attracted a swarm of buzzing bees.
11. The scent of freshly baked bread filled the air, making everyone feel hungry.
12. She wore a perfume that left a lingering scent of jasmine and vanilla wherever she went.
13. As the sun set, the sweet scent of blooming flowers wafted through the garden.
14. He could identify the scent of rain before the first drops fell, a smell he cherished.
15. The earthy scent of pine trees enveloped us as we hiked deeper into the forest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scent>