

SCHEIK

Meaning: Scheik: A leader or chief in a Muslim community, often responsible for guiding followers in spiritual and cultural matters.

1. The scheik led his followers through the desert, their faith unwavering.
2. As a scheik, he was expected to uphold tradition while navigating modern challenges.
3. The scheik's wisdom was sought after by leaders from distant lands.
4. In the bustling market, the scheik engaged with merchants to foster community ties.
5. With a commanding presence, the scheik addressed the crowd, inspiring hope and unity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scheik>