

SCHOLAR

Meaning: A scholar is a person who is highly educated or has an extensive knowledge in a particular field, often engaged in academic research or study.

1. The scholar presented his groundbreaking research at the international conference.
2. Her dedication to her studies has transformed her into a respected scholar in her field.
3. Many scholars believe that ancient texts hold the key to understanding modern culture.
4. The young scholar received a prestigious award for her innovative contributions to science.
5. He spent years studying ancient languages, determined to become a leading scholar in linguistics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scholar>