

SCOFFER

Meaning: A scoffer is a person who mocks or ridicules something, often expressing disbelief or disdain.

1. The scoffer laughed dismissively at the speaker's passionate arguments.
2. Despite being a scoffer at first, she eventually came to appreciate the art form.
3. He was known as a scoffer in the group, often mocking the ideas of his peers.
4. The scoffer's comments stung, but they motivated her to prove him wrong.
5. In a room full of believers, the scoffer's skepticism felt out of place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scoffer>