

SCOLDING

Meaning: Scolding is the act of reprimanding or criticizing someone, often in a stern or disapproving manner.

1. The teacher was scolding the students for not paying attention in class.
2. After the toddler spilled juice all over the carpet, his mother had to give him a firm scolding.
3. Despite her scolding, he couldn't help but laugh at the silly mistake he had made.
4. I could hear my neighbor scolding her dog for barking too much at night.
5. Scolding might be necessary at times, but it's important to approach it with patience and understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scolding>