

SCOWL

Meaning: Scowl (verb): to frown or grimace in an expression of displeasure or annoyance.

1. She couldn't help but scowl at the rude remark he made during the meeting.
2. The child's scowl deepened as he realized he had to share his toys with his little brother.
3. As the storm rolled in, the dark clouds seemed to scowl at the sun's attempts to shine through.
4. He wore a scowl on his face, clearly displeased by the unexpected turn of events.
5. Despite her usual cheerful demeanor, a scowl crossed her face when she heard the news.
6. She couldn't help but scowl when she saw the mess left in the kitchen.
7. His scowl deepened as he listened to the illogical arguments being presented.
8. The teacher noticed the student's scowl and decided to address his confusion.
9. After receiving the disappointing news, he wore a deep scowl throughout the meeting.
10. Her scowl faded as she began to understand the complexities of the situation.
11. She couldn't help but scowl when she saw the mess in the kitchen.
12. The teacher noticed the student's scowl as he struggled with the difficult math problem.
13. Despite his attempt to smile, a scowl crept onto his face when he heard the bad news.
14. The dog let out a low growl and fixed me with a scowl that warned me to back off.
15. Her scowl turned into a smile when she finally understood the joke.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scowl>