SCRATCHWEED

Meaning: Scratchweed is a type of plant that causes skin irritation or allergic reactions, often found in wild or overgrown areas.

1. The farmer struggled to keep the scratchweed from overrunning his vegetable garden.
2. After hiking through the woods, she discovered that scratchweed had left her arms itchy and red.
3. Some herbalists believe scratchweed has medicinal properties that can aid in skin irritations.
4. To prevent scratchweed from spreading, it's essential to pull it out by the roots.
5. Children playing in the field often develop rashes from contact with scratchweed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scratchweed