

SCRIBBLER

Meaning: Scribbler: a person who writes or draws carelessly or in a hasty, informal manner, often producing spontaneous or playful creations.

1. The young child was a natural scribbler, filling pages with colorful doodles.
2. As a professional artist, she often referred to her early sketches as the work of a mere scribbler.
3. He carried a small notebook everywhere, always ready to capture his thoughts as a scribbler of ideas.
4. The teacher praised the student's creativity, even if his notes looked like the work of a frantic scribbler.
5. In the margins of her books, the scribbler left behind whimsical drawings that brought her stories to life.
6. The young artist was known as a prolific scribbler, filling sketchbooks with her imaginative doodles.
7. During the meeting, he was just a quiet scribbler, jotting down notes while others debated.
8. The children gathered around the table, each one a little scribbler creating their own masterpiece.
9. As a scribbler of ideas, she often transformed her random thoughts into compelling stories.
10. His reputation as a scribbler grew after he published a collection of his spontaneous poems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scribbler>