

SCRIBBLINGLY

Meaning: Scribbingly: in a hurried, careless, or chaotic manner, often characterized by rapid and unrefined writing or drawing.

1. She wrote her thoughts down scribbingly, as if the words were racing to escape her mind.
2. The child drew scribbingly across the page, creating a chaotic masterpiece of colors and shapes.
3. In a fit of inspiration, he began to jot down ideas scribbingly, barely pausing to think.
4. Her notes were scribbingly written, filled with hasty lines and erratic margins that reflected her excitement.
5. The artist's sketches appeared scribbingly on the canvas, each stroke capturing the essence of her fleeting ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scribbingly>