

SCRIBE

Meaning: Scribe: a person who writes or copies documents, especially one who does so by hand or through digital means.

1. The ancient scribe meticulously copied each manuscript by hand.
2. In modern times, a digital scribe can transcribe spoken words into written text.
3. She decided to scribe her thoughts in a journal every evening for reflection.
4. The scribe played a crucial role in preserving history through written records.
5. As a scribe, he was skilled at both calligraphy and storytelling.
6. The ancient scribe carefully inked each character onto the parchment.
7. In the digital age, the role of the traditional scribe has evolved into that of a content creator.
8. During the workshop, participants learned how to scribe beautiful calligraphy on various surfaces.
9. The historian discovered a long-lost manuscript that had been scribed by a renowned scholar.
10. She decided to scribe her thoughts in a journal to reflect on her experiences.
11. The ancient scribe meticulously copied the texts by hand, ensuring every detail was preserved.
12. As a scribe for the local newspaper, she was responsible for documenting the latest community events.
13. In medieval times, a scribe held a respected position, often tasked with recording important historical documents.
14. He decided to scribe his thoughts in a journal, hoping to capture the essence of his experiences.
15. The artist's work included intricate designs that looked as if they had been scribed directly onto the canvas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scribe>