

SCROW

Meaning: Scrow (verb): To blend or mix materials, such as colors or clay, to create a new texture or form.

1. The artist decided to scrow the vibrant colors together to create a unique texture.
2. As he began to scrow the clay, it took on a form that resembled a mythical creature.
3. In the midst of the debate, she managed to scrow her points in a compelling manner.
4. To emphasize her argument, she chose to scrow the data visually on a large poster.
5. Trying to scrow the pieces of the puzzle, he realized that several parts were missing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scrow>