

SCRUPLER

Meaning: A scrupuler is a person who is guided by strict principles of morality and ethics, often showing concern for right and wrong in their decisions and actions.

1. The scrupuler in the debate emphasized the importance of ethical considerations in all arguments.
2. As a scrupuler, she often found herself torn between her ambitions and her moral compass.
3. His reputation as a scrupuler made others trust him with sensitive information.
4. In a world full of gray areas, the scrupuler sought to uphold unwavering principles.
5. Despite the pressure to conform, the scrupuler remained steadfast in his beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scrupler>