

SCRUTATOR

Meaning: Scrutator: a person who examines or inspects something carefully and critically, often for accuracy or truth.

1. The scrutator examined the documents meticulously, searching for any discrepancies.
2. As a diligent scrutator, she left no stone unturned in her investigation.
3. The role of the scrutator is crucial in ensuring transparency and accountability in the voting process.
4. His reputation as a careful scrutator earned him respect among his peers in the auditing field.
5. During the meeting, the scrutator raised several important questions that needed immediate attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scrutator>