SCRUTINIZE

Meaning: To scrutinize means to examine something closely and carefully in order to detect any errors or details.

1. The committee decided to scrutinize the financial reports for any discrepancies.
2. Before signing the contract, she took the time to scrutinize every clause.
3. Investigators will scrutinize the evidence to determine the cause of the accident.
4. He learned to scrutinize the details in order to write more effective essays.
5. The teacher encouraged her students to scrutinize their sources for reliability.
6. The researchers had to scrutinize the data carefully to ensure their findings were accurate.
7. Before signing the contract, she decided to scrutinize every clause to avoid any hidden pitfalls.
8. The detective needed to scrutinize the evidence to uncover the truth behind the mysterious disappearance.
9. In order to improve the proposal, the committee will scrutinize each section for clarity and coherence.
10. He always takes the time to scrutinize his work, ensuring that every detail is perfect before submission.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scrutinize