

SCUPPER

Meaning: Scupper (verb): to thwart or ruin plans or prospects.

1. The unexpected storm threatened to scupper our plans for the outdoor wedding.
2. His careless comments could easily scupper the chances of a successful negotiation.
3. The team worked hard to ensure that nothing would scupper their progress on the project.
4. A last-minute withdrawal of funding could scupper the entire research initiative.
5. She was determined not to let any setbacks scupper her dreams of starting a business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scupper>