

SEABOUND

Meaning: Seabound refers to something that is traveling or destined for the sea.

1. The seabound vessel glided gracefully over the shimmering waves.
2. He felt a sense of freedom as he embarked on his seabound journey.
3. The seabound trade routes were crucial for the economy of coastal cities.
4. Her dreams were filled with adventures on a seabound ship sailing to distant lands.
5. The seabound expedition promised to uncover secrets hidden beneath the ocean's depths.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seabound>