

SEAQUAKE

Meaning: A seaquake is an underwater earthquake that causes shaking of the sea floor, potentially affecting coastal areas and marine ecosystems.

1. The coastal town was left in shock after the unexpected seaquake rattled the shoreline.
2. Scientists are studying the impact of the recent seaquake on local marine ecosystems.
3. Residents evacuated their homes as the seaquake triggered warnings of potential tsunamis.
4. The intensity of the seaquake caught many off guard, leading to widespread damage and chaos.
5. Emergency services were mobilized swiftly in response to the seaquake, assessing the damage along the coast.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seaquake>