

SEARCH

Meaning: Search (verb): to look carefully and thoroughly for something or someone.

1. I decided to search for new job opportunities online.
2. The detective had to search the entire house for clues.
3. She used a search engine to look for information about her family history.
4. His relentless search for the truth led him on a journey around the world.
5. After hours of search, they finally found the missing documents.
6. I need to search for my lost keys before I can leave the house.
7. The detective conducted a thorough search of the crime scene for any clues.
8. She decided to search online for the best travel deals for her upcoming vacation.
9. After an exhaustive search, they finally found the missing dog in a neighbor's yard.
10. The library's catalog makes it easy to search for books by title or author.
11. She decided to search for a new job after feeling unfulfilled in her current position.
12. The detective began to search the crime scene for any clues that might lead to the suspect.
13. With the internet at her fingertips, she could search for information on nearly any topic imaginable.
14. He embarked on a search for his long-lost childhood friend, hoping to reconnect after many years.
15. The team's search for a solution to the ongoing problem brought them closer together and sparked new ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/search>