

SEARCHLIGHT

Meaning: A searchlight is a powerful, focused beam of light used to illuminate areas or objects, often employed for signaling or navigation.

1. The searchlight swept across the sky, illuminating the clouds with a bright beam.
2. In the distance, the searchlight flickered, guiding the lost ships safely to shore.
3. He felt like a searchlight, scanning the crowd for a familiar face among strangers.
4. The searchlight's glow revealed the hidden entrance to the cave, beckoning them to explore.
5. As the concert began, a dazzling searchlight burst into action, captivating the audience's attention.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/searchlight>