

SEAREDNESS

Meaning: Searedness refers to the quality or state of being seared, characterized by a browned or charred surface, often enhancing flavor in food or indicating skin that has been burned or intensely heated.

1. The searedness of the steak added a rich flavor that delighted our taste buds.
2. After a long day in the sun, the searedness of her skin was a testament to her adventurous spirit.
3. He admired the searedness of the painting, which gave it a dramatic and intense quality.
4. The chef explained how the perfect searedness can enhance the texture of the fish.
5. As she touched the searedness on her arm, she remembered the warmth of the bonfire.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/searedness>