

SEATLESS

Meaning: Seatless: lacking seats or seating; designed for standing or without designated seating arrangements.

1. The concert was so popular that many fans had to settle for a seatless experience.
2. After the renovations, the theater offered a few seatless areas for standing tickets.
3. Traveling on the bus during rush hour often means enduring a seatless journey.
4. Despite being seatless, the excitement in the crowd was palpable as the game began.
5. The festival encouraged a seatless atmosphere, promoting mingling and movement among attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seatless>