

SECESSIONISM

Meaning: Secessionism is the political movement advocating for the withdrawal of a region or group from a larger political entity, often leading to conflict and challenges related to identity and governance.

1. Secessionism can often lead to significant political and social upheaval within a nation.
2. The rise of secessionism in various regions reflects deep-rooted issues of identity and governance.
3. Many scholars argue that secessionism is a natural response to perceived injustices by central authorities.
4. The movement for independence was fueled by a resurgence of secessionism among the local population.
5. Historically, secessionism has played a critical role in shaping the boundaries of modern states.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/secessionism>