

SECLUSION

Meaning: Seclusion is the state of being private and away from others, often sought for peace or solitude.

1. After years of living in the city, she sought seclusion in the mountains for a fresh perspective on life.
2. The writer found that seclusion was essential for his creativity to flourish without distractions.
3. In the midst of a bustling world, he cherished the moments of seclusion that allowed him to reflect.
4. Seclusion can be both a sanctuary and a prison, depending on one's perspective and circumstances.
5. The retreat offered a chance for seclusion, where participants could disconnect from technology and reconnect with themselves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seclusion>