

SECRETARYSHIP

Meaning: Secretaryship refers to the position or role of a secretary, typically involving administrative duties and organizational responsibilities.

1. The role of secretaryship often requires excellent organizational skills and attention to detail.
2. She aspired to a position of secretaryship in the prestigious law firm after completing her internship.
3. His experience in secretaryship made him an indispensable part of the executive team.
4. After years of hard work, she finally achieved her goal of obtaining a secretaryship in the government.
5. The secretaryship involves not only administrative tasks but also significant interpersonal communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/secretaryship>