

SECRETE

Meaning: To secrete means to produce and release a substance, such as hormones or fluids, from cells or glands in an organism.

1. The glands in the human body secrete hormones that regulate various functions.
2. Some plants secrete a sticky substance to attract pollinators.
3. During the digestion process, the stomach lining will secrete acid to break down food.
4. Certain species of frogs secrete toxins to deter predators from eating them.
5. The researchers discovered that the cells could secrete a protein vital for tissue regeneration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/secrete>