

SECRETIVENESS

Meaning: Secretiveness is the quality of being reserved or inclined to conceal information, making it challenging for others to gain insight into one's thoughts or actions.

1. Her secretiveness made it difficult for her friends to understand what she was going through.
2. The company's secretiveness regarding its new project raised suspicions among its competitors.
3. His secretiveness often led to misunderstandings in their relationship, as she felt shut out from his life.
4. Despite his secretiveness, she could sense that he was hiding something important from her.
5. The culture of secretiveness within the organization stifled open communication and collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/secretiveness>