

SEDUCIBLE

Meaning: Seducible: capable of being attracted or influenced, especially through charm or persuasion.

1. The artist found that her charisma made her quite seducible in social situations.
2. In their discussions, he realized how seducible she was to flattery and charm.
3. The plot of the novel revolves around a seducible character who falls for every charming stranger.
4. His seducible nature often led him into complicated romantic entanglements.
5. She was aware of her seducible tendencies and tried to guard her heart against manipulative advances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seducible>