

SEEDMAN

Meaning: Seedman: A person who specializes in the sale and distribution of seeds, often possessing expertise in various plant varieties and their cultivation requirements.

1. The seedman carefully sorted through the various packets, ensuring each one was labeled correctly.
2. As a seedman, he possessed extensive knowledge about different plant varieties and their growth conditions.
3. In the local market, the seedman attracted customers with his vibrant display of heirloom seeds.
4. Every spring, the seedman hosted workshops to educate aspiring gardeners on the art of seed saving.
5. His reputation as a skilled seedman drew attention from farmers seeking high-quality crops for the upcoming season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seedman>