

SEEDNESS

Meaning: Seedness refers to the initial stage of plant development characterized by the germination of seeds.

1. Seedness can be observed as the initial stage of plant life when the seed begins to germinate.
2. The gardener emphasized the importance of seedness in ensuring a healthy crop yield.
3. Understanding the concept of seedness is crucial for botanists studying plant development.
4. The seedness of a flower can determine its potential for growth and reproduction.
5. In agricultural practices, monitoring seedness helps farmers optimize their planting strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seedness>