SEEL

Meaning: Seel (verb): To sew shut the eyes of a bird, typically a hawk, to enhance its focus and hunting instincts.

1. I need to seel the hawk before the hunt to ensure it is focused.
2. The ancient practice of seeling involved sewing the eyes of birds to enhance their hunting instincts.
3. As a symbol of loyalty, he felt compelled to seel his eyes to the truth of their relationship.
4. The falconer decided it was time to seel his bird to prepare for the upcoming competition.
5. In her dreams, she often found herself in a world where she could seel the sky and touch the stars.
6. I could hardly seel the beauty of the sunset as it painted the sky.
7. As she walked through the garden, she tried to seel the flowers in full bloom.
8. The magician used a clever trick to seel the card before revealing it to the audience.
9. He had to seel his emotions tightly during the poignant farewell.
10. To truly appreciate the artwork, one must seel the intricate details hidden within.
11. She tried to seel her eyes shut against the bright sunlight.
12. The artist would seel the colors together to create a vivid masterpiece.
13. As the thunder rumbled, they decided to seel themselves in the safety of their home.
14. He felt a sudden urge to seel his emotions, hiding them deep within.
15. To protect her secrets, she learned how to seel her thoughts from prying minds.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seel