

SEEM

Meaning: 'SEEM' refers to giving the impression or appearing to be a certain way, often based on perception rather than certainty.

1. She seemed surprised by the unexpected news.
2. It seems like everyone is enjoying the new café in town.
3. His explanation seemed reasonable, but I still had my doubts.
4. The sky seems to be clearing up after the storm.
5. They seem to have forgotten about the meeting scheduled for today.
6. It may seem impossible to achieve such a feat in just one day.
7. They seem to be enjoying their time at the festival more than ever.
8. Despite the chaos around her, she seemed remarkably calm and collected.
9. He doesn't seem like the type to give up easily on his dreams.
10. The weather seems to be changing rapidly with each passing hour.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seem>