

SEETHER

Meaning: Seether (noun): a person who is visibly agitated or seething with emotion, often due to stress or frustration.

1. The band's latest album features a powerful track by Seether that has resonated with fans.
2. After a long day at work, I often find myself feeling like a seether, overwhelmed by stress.
3. Seether's music often explores themes of heartbreak and emotional turmoil, making it relatable to many listeners.
4. At the concert, the energy was electric as Seether performed their biggest hits.
5. In the heat of the argument, he became a seether, unable to control his frustration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/seether>