

SELENOCENTRIC

Meaning: Selenocentric refers to a model or perspective that centers on the moon as the primary point of reference in astronomical or geological contexts.

1. The selenocentric model of the universe focuses on the moon as the central point of reference.
2. In the study of lunar geology, a selenocentric perspective can provide unique insights into the moon's formation.
3. Selenocentric navigation systems could revolutionize space travel by utilizing the moon's position in the solar system.
4. Astronomers often debate the merits of selenocentric versus geocentric frameworks in understanding celestial movements.
5. The artist's selenocentric themes in her work reflect a deep fascination with the moon's influence on human emotion.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/selenocentric>