

SELF-APPLYING

Meaning: Self-applying refers to tools or techniques that can operate or implement themselves autonomously without external intervention.

1. Self-applying tools can significantly enhance productivity in various tasks.
2. The principle of self-applying techniques is often seen in advanced machine learning algorithms.
3. In the context of education, self-applying methods encourage students to take charge of their learning.
4. The self-applying nature of the software allows it to adapt to user preferences over time.
5. Understanding self-applying mechanisms is crucial for developing effective automation systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-applying>