

SELF-CONCEITED

Meaning: Self-conceited: excessively proud of oneself; having an inflated sense of one's own importance or abilities.

1. His self-conceited attitude made it difficult for others to work with him.
2. She was so self-conceited that she couldn't accept any criticism, no matter how constructive.
3. Despite his talents, his self-conceited nature alienated many of his friends.
4. The author's self-conceited remarks in interviews turned off potential readers.
5. In her self-conceited world, she believed everyone admired her as much as she admired herself.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-conceited>