

SELF-DECEIT

Meaning: Self-deceit is the act of misrepresenting or deluding oneself about the truth of one's situation or feelings.

1. Self-deceit often leads individuals to ignore the harsh truths about their circumstances.
2. She was trapped in a cycle of self-deceit, convincing herself that everything was fine when it clearly was not.
3. Recognizing his self-deceit was the first step toward making meaningful changes in his life.
4. The novel explores themes of self-deceit as the protagonist struggles to confront her own failures.
5. In moments of self-deceit, we may find it easier to blame others rather than accept our own mistakes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-deceit>