

SELF-DETERMINATION

Meaning: Self-determination is the right of individuals or groups to make their own choices and govern themselves, particularly in the context of political and personal autonomy.

1. Self-determination is a fundamental principle of human rights that empowers individuals to shape their own destinies.
2. The movement for self-determination in various regions has gained momentum over the past few decades.
3. Many cultures emphasize the importance of self-determination in fostering personal identity and community resilience.
4. Self-determination can lead to greater motivation and satisfaction in both personal and professional life.
5. In international law, self-determination is often cited as a key factor in resolving conflicts and promoting peace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-determination>