

SELF-DETERMINING

Meaning: Self-determining refers to the ability of an individual or group to make their own choices and govern their own actions based on personal values and aspirations.

1. A self-determining individual often charts their own path in life, guided by personal values and aspirations.
2. The self-determining nature of the community allowed them to make decisions that directly reflected their needs and desires.
3. In a world that often imposes its will, being self-determining is a powerful act of reclaiming one's identity.
4. The self-determining process of establishing personal goals can lead to greater fulfillment and success.
5. Debates around self-determining rights highlight the importance of autonomy in various societal contexts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-determining>