

SELF-GRATULATION

Meaning: Self-gratulation is the act of expressing pride or satisfaction in one's own achievements, often leading to a sense of complacency.

1. His self-gratulation after winning the award was evident in his triumphant speech.
2. The constant self-gratulation among the team members created an atmosphere of complacency.
3. She felt uncomfortable with his self-gratulation, believing humility was a more admirable trait.
4. In their self-gratulation, they overlooked the contributions of others who had helped along the way.
5. The self-gratulation he displayed on social media alienated some of his friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-gratulation>