

SELF-IMPORTANT

Meaning: Self-important: having an inflated sense of one's own worth or significance, often leading to an arrogant or dismissive demeanor towards others.

1. His self-important attitude made it difficult for others to work with him.
2. She spoke in a self-important tone, as if her opinions were the only ones that mattered.
3. The self-important executive dismissed everyone's ideas during the meeting.
4. Feeling self-important, he strutted around the office as if he were the boss.
5. Her self-important demeanor often alienated her from her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-important>