

SELF-INDULGENT

Meaning: Self-indulgent: characterized by excessive gratification of one's own desires or pleasures, often to the detriment of well-being or responsibility.

1. His self-indulgent lifestyle often left him feeling empty despite the luxuries he surrounded himself with.
2. She realized that her self-indulgent habits were taking a toll on her health and happiness.
3. The novel's protagonist was a self-indulgent artist, consumed by his own desires and excesses.
4. After a long week of work, he allowed himself a self-indulgent weekend filled with spa treatments and fine dining.
5. Her self-indulgent attitude towards shopping made it difficult for her to save any money for her future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-indulgent>