

SELF-OPINION

Meaning: Self-opinion: a person's own assessment or belief about themselves, often characterized by confidence and conviction.

1. Having a strong self-opinion can sometimes lead to unnecessary conflict in discussions.
2. She often articulated her self-opinion with unwavering confidence, even when challenged.
3. His self-opinion was shaped by years of feedback from both peers and mentors alike.
4. The workshop encouraged participants to reflect on their self-opinion and how it affects their decision-making.
5. Balancing self-opinion with openness to others' perspectives is crucial for collaborative success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-opinion>