

SELF-PERPLEXED

Meaning: Self-perplexed: feeling confused or puzzled by one's own thoughts or understanding.

1. After reading the complex poem, I found myself self-perplexed by its deeper meanings.
2. He stared at the puzzle pieces scattered on the table, feeling utterly self-perplexed about how they fit together.
3. In her attempt to understand the scientific theory, she became self-perplexed, lost in the nuances of the explanation.
4. The sudden turn of events left him self-perplexed, questioning his choices and the path he had taken.
5. While trying to solve the riddle, the group became self-perplexed, debating the possible answers with increasing frustration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-perplexed>