

SELF-REPROACHED

Meaning: Self-reproached: feeling or expressing guilt or shame for one's own actions or mistakes.

1. She felt self-reproached after realizing she had forgotten her best friend's birthday.
2. His self-reproached demeanor was evident as he replayed the argument in his mind.
3. Despite his achievements, he often lived with a self-reproached attitude about his past mistakes.
4. The self-reproached expression on her face suggested she was grappling with guilt.
5. After the incident, he spent days in a self-reproached state, doubting his decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-reproached>