

SELF-REPROOF

Meaning: Self-reproof the act of criticizing or blaming oneself for one's mistakes or shortcomings.

1. Self-reproof often leads to personal growth and deeper understanding of one's mistakes.
2. In moments of self-reproof, she realized the importance of forgiving herself for past errors.
3. His self-reproof after the incident was a sign of maturity and accountability.
4. The artist's self-reproof was evident in her decision to improve her craft continuously.
5. With each failure, he embraced self-reproof as a necessary step toward success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-reproof>