

SELF-REPULSIVE

Meaning: Self-repulsive refers to feelings or behaviors characterized by self-disgust or aversion, often resulting from negative self-perception or insecurities.

1. Her self-repulsive thoughts often prevented her from enjoying even the simplest pleasures in life.
2. He struggled with self-repulsive behavior that stemmed from deep-rooted insecurities.
3. The artist's self-repulsive nature fueled her creativity but also left her feeling isolated.
4. In moments of vulnerability, he became acutely aware of his self-repulsive tendencies.
5. Trying to overcome his self-repulsive feelings, she sought therapy to improve her self-image.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-repulsive>