

SELF-SACRIFICING

Meaning: Self-sacrificing: willingly putting the needs or well-being of others before one's own, often at a personal cost.

1. Her self-sacrificing nature often left her putting others' needs before her own.
2. The firefighter's self-sacrificing act saved the lives of several children trapped in the burning building.
3. In the novel, the protagonist's self-sacrificing choices highlight the theme of love and duty.
4. She admired her grandmother for her self-sacrificing spirit and the countless sacrifices she made for the family.
5. His self-sacrificing behavior during the crisis won him the respect and admiration of his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-sacrificing>