SELF-WILL

Meaning: Self-will refers to the strong determination to act according to one's own desires or choices, often leading to stubbornness or persistence in pursuing goals.

1. Self-will can sometimes lead to stubbornness, making it difficult to compromise.
2. Her self-will propelled her to achieve her goals despite numerous obstacles.
3. The leader's self-will inspired his team to push through challenging times.
4. Excessive self-will can cloud one's judgment and hinder collaboration.
5. He often relied on his self-will, believing it was the key to his success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/self-will