

SEMAPHORICALLY

Meaning: SEMAPHORICALLY: In a manner that uses visual signals or gestures, often to convey information or instructions.

1. The conductor waved his arms semaphorically, guiding the orchestra through the complex composition.
2. In the crowded train station, the staff communicated semaphorically, ensuring that passengers understood the urgent announcements.
3. The teacher used gestures semaphorically to reinforce her instructions, making it easier for her students to follow along.
4. During the performance, the dancers moved semaphorically, conveying a story without uttering a single word.
5. He expressed his frustration semaphorically, using exaggerated motions to emphasize his point to the audience.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/semaphorically>